Headline: The Gardens at Felician Village offers free Lunch & Learn Program

Have you ever wondered what life at The Gardens at Felician Village was like? Now is your chance to find out! The Gardens at Felician Village will hold a free Lunch & Learn Program on Tuesday, March 22nd from 11:30am – 1:30pm called “Why Would You Ever Want to Leave Your House?”. The program will focus on what independent living is like at The Gardens and will be hosted by Loree Shriver, Housing Coordinator at The Gardens.

Participants of the program will receive information about The Gardens, have questions about independent living answered and will receive a light lunch provided by our dining service staff. An optional tour will also be available afterward to anyone interested.

The Gardens at Felician Village is the independent living option on our campus and is located at 1700 S. 18th Street in Manitowoc. The Gardens includes 1, 2, and 3- bedroom garden homes and apartments for people age 55 and better who enjoy living an active lifestyle and no longer want to be burdened with the upkeep of a house.

Seating is limited, registration is required. For more information or to register, please call Loree Shriver at 684-7171, ext. 409.
