Headline: Scams Against Seniors Topic of Presentation at Felician Village

Felician Village will hold a free presentation called “Scams Against Seniors” on Tuesday, January 25, from 2– 3:30 p.m. in the Glab Lounge at The Gardens Independent Living, 1700 S. 18th St. Manitowoc. Scams against seniors are on the rise nationally and have recently surfaced in Northeast Wisconsin. Scammers are getting personal information and using it against individuals to make their scams more believable.

The presentation will feature guest speaker, Sergeant Bruce Jacobs from the Manitowoc Police Department and will focus on how to keep yourself from becoming a victim, the steps to follow if you have become a victim and what your risk level for becoming a victim is. Sergeant Jacobs will allow time to answer questions from the audience.

Sergeant Bruce Jacobs has been with the Manitowoc Police Department for 23 years, spending most of his time in schools educating youth. He is currently the Crime Prevention Sergeant and runs many programs designed to prevent crime and educate people on not being a victim.

Space is limited. An R.S.V.P. for the event is appreciated and can be done by calling 684-7171, ext. 409 no later than January 24.
