FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Felician Village announces winner of 2017 Felician Award for Excellence in Volunteer Service

MANITOWOC, Wis. (April 25, 2017) - On Friday, April 21, Tim Lindloff, Volunteer Coordinator, Felician Village, named Harriet Peach as the 2017 recipient of the Felician Award for Excellence in Volunteer Service at Felician Village. The award was presented at the 2017 Volunteer Appreciation ceremony to kick off National Volunteer Appreciation Week, April 23-29.

Peach volunteers by overseeing the daily organizing of the chapel and the chapel décor. She has been volunteering for over 29 years and volunteers 60-65 hours per month.

Peach was nominated by two individuals. While presenting the award, Volunteer Coordinator Tim Lindloff read some of the remarks from the nomination forms. "Harriet has made a big difference in bringing joy, fun and companionship to everyone she meets," Lindloff read. "Harriet embodies all aspects of our mission at Felician Village, she truly responds to Blessed Angela's invitation, "Serve where you are needed."

This award recognizes an individual whose volunteer actions have made a significant impact on the residents/operations of Felician Village. The recipient of this award exemplifies the core values of Felician Village by living out the healing ministry of Jesus and providing compassionate care that respects the dignity of each person served.
