FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Felician Village to hold polka Mass to celebrate 130th anniversary

MANITOWOC, Wis. (September 6, 2017) - A polka Mass will be held at Felician Village on Saturday, September 9, at 4 p.m. to kick off the celebration of 130 years of service to the Manitowoc community. The Mass will be celebrated by Father Gerald Foley while the Orv Konop OK Dance Band will provide the music. The general public is invited to attend this free event which will be held in a large tent at 1635 S. 21st Street in Manitowoc. Attendees may bring lawn chairs if they wish.

St. Mary's Nursing Home was established in Manitowoc in 1887 by Rev. Zdislaus Luczycki and the Felician Sisters. At the start, care was not only provided to the aged but also to orphans. The original name of the home was "The Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary Home for the Aged, Crippled and Orphans." Sister Mary Veronica was the first administrator of the home. In 1934, St. Mary's Home dedicated itself exclusively to the care of the aged. Today, Felician Village provides a full continuum of care along many amenities for seniors including independent living, two levels of assisted living, a nursing home and a rehab unit.
